Dear Registrar,

Further to the Plaintiff's 1st request for a case management teleconference dated March 4th, 2020, the Plaintiff would like to re-iterate his request for a case management teleconference. The proceeding is now at a standstill, due to Mr. Gleeson's March 2nd Order. Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

The Plaintiff is available any day during business hours.

The Defendant is available any date for the rest of March, except March 10, 13, 16 and 24.

The Order states that the first case management conference is to be held after resolution of a presumed Supreme Court appeal, however, such appeal cannot commence before the Federal Court makes a final judgment on the two motions. For this reason, this proceeding is now in a de facto state of limbo, where the Federal Court is waiting for a Supreme Court decision, and the Supreme Court proceeding requires a final judgment from the Federal Court.

This state of limbo requires that a conference be held promptly.

Thank you kindly,
